b) Starting September 2016, we will be spending the contributions buying lottery tickets which can be any of Camelot's game. This is in consideration of the frequent changes and offers being made by Camelot.

Every £5 contributions will continue to allow members to play in a group with £80 worth of lottery tickets to share. The more funds that accumulated in your account, the more tickets for the syndicate and you, the greater the chance of winning.

In great event of a jackpot win, the system below will allow members in the winning group to enjoy a life changing experience while sharing a bit of the luck to everyone else. ### In the event of big winnings

It is up to the individual concerned if he wants to go public but UK- lottery syndicate and its manager/administrator will not be responsible if other people managed to identify a member through the website or his association to the syndicate.

It is, however, the discretion of UK-lottery syndicate if the company goes public or not.

Withdrawals and Cancellations before the draw

If anyone would like any withdrawal or cancellation of contribution, he should inform us as soon as possible. The member should shoulder the cost of any transfer of contributions. Withdrawal is deemed completed once transfer of contribution initiated.

Withdrawal could only be allowed when draws for the ticket have not yet been done and given sufficient time.

Liabilities

Members will not hold the manager responsible and/or liable for mistakes, which could have been avoided provided that he has acted honestly or reasonably.

You agree that Guide2lotto will not be responsible if the payment option you have chosen had gone into liquidation or bankruptcy.

It is your responsibility to abide by the laws in your country that can affect your ability to play. You agree to update yourself with this document at regular intervals as we may revise the Terms and Conditions at any time.

Any information you have given to UK-Lottery syndicate will be treated with confidentiality. For whatever reason that this confidentiality might have been breached, we will inform the members as soon as possible and members will not hold the manager or company responsible unless it was done maliciously.

It is your responsibility to inform the manager if your designated membership code does not include the first 2 letters of your First name and the First letter of your surname. This may mean that the tickets allocated to you were for someone else's.

The manager reserves the right to include members in more than five groups provided payment is arranged and agreed upon by both the manager and the member. A member may also request to get more than one place in a certain group which could be done upon the agreement with the manager, and the member provided the group would not exceed the maximum of only 21 members.

Although aliases are used so that members can distinguish which group they belong, UK-lottery syndicate manager may assign alias that does not reflect a member's First name or surname for whatever purpose as long as the member concerned is informed. A member may also have more than one alias as long as payments were arranged and discussed with both manager and members with the group kept at a maximum of 21 members only.

Any activity by non-eligible member will be declared void and Guide2lotto limited company will become the sole property owner of the winnings. Any misrepresentation and/or unlawful activity by a member will void his winnings and Guide2lotto limited company will become the sole property owner of the winnings.

You will not hold the manager nor guide2lotto limited accountable nor responsible in any way if the lotto ticket numbers that members have requested are not accurate or you have not been included in the group with the ticket you have chosen. You have the option however of opting out on the lottery syndicate group before a lottery draw has occurred and we will refund you of your contribution for the month involved. It is a member's responsibility to check the accuracy of the numbers they have chosen.

If there was any discrepancy between the copies of tickets that were sent to members and our website, we will follow the copies of tickets and the way members are grouped in the email/Pdf file. Although we double check tickets, copying ticket numbers to a website can have more potential for human error. If the tickets can only be seen on our website, members are free to copy and print it for their own records.

We exercise transparency by posting the national lottery tickets on our website or sending email for members to view. We also double check the tickets and groupings. You agree that you will not hold the manager nor the company liable if one or more tickets have been mistakenly allocated to two or more group or members. In such circumstances the allocated winnings will be shared by the two or more groups or members in respect only to the ticket shared. For example, each group has 21 shares. If a ticket wins and it was mistakenly shared with 2 main groups, the allocated winnings will be divided for 42 shares and each individual will get 2.3% of the allocated winning. The money that was not used for buying tickets will be distributed equally on the two groups. In the same example, the two groups will be refunded the amount not used for buying tickets and will be divided and distributed as 42 shares.

If for some reason we were not able to allocate you in any group, you will be entitled to a full refund of your contribution for the month concerned. We will reimburse the group/members proportionately of the ticket purchase amount that a member paid but was not played.

If, for example, you paid £25 and we only allocated you in 4 main groups instead of 5 main groups, you will be entitled to a £5 refund as each group is worth £5.

If a member paid only £20 but was by mistake allocated to 5 main groups instead of only 4 main groups, the member will proportionately get 80% of his total winnings across five main groups and 20% will proportionately go to Guide2lotto Limited.

You agree that you will not hold the manager nor the company liable if for some reason there have been more than 21 members or shares in the group. For example, if there have been 22 members or shares in the group with a winning ticket, the individual winnings or shares allocated in the group will be divided for 22 instead of the usual 21. In the same example, the extra £5 not used for buying tickets will be distributed equally to the 11 members or shares in the group.

As a manager, we also keep positions to accommodate more members or reserve certain place for members pending completion of application form or payment. The manager may also play as a member and occupy more than 1 position in the group to increase the number of tickets in the group. Each position in a main group is equivalent to 4.7% share of the prize allocated to the respective group and the manager or members may get 4.7% on each position that he occupies in the group concerned.

Our main site is UK-lottersyndicate.com and the information on this site is more updated. Members should check terms and contents of UK-lottersyndicate.com than any other of our old lottery websites.

If for whatever reason we were unable to buy tickets, we will not be held liable. You will have a choice however to ask for the unplayed ticket's equivalent purchase amount to be reimbursed proportionately to the groups or members affected.
